have; in the resolution passed at their meeting held on 12-11-04, sanctioned a revised scale of establishment of the office of the Secretary to the Committee.

The total of the original scale was 277-120
- - - - revised scale is - 325-40

One important feature in the revised scale is the pay of the Manager is increased from 50-3-65 to 70-5-100.

S. Krishnamachari, B.A., who is at present the Offg. Manager, is recommended to be appointed as Manager on 70-5-100.

As, under G.O. No. G.404-43 & the 27th July 1903, appointments on progressive pay rising to Rs 100 and above have to be reported to Govt for sanction, sanction to the appointment of S. Krishnamachari as Manager according to the revised scale is sought for by the Secretary to the Committee submitted with a draft sanctioning the appointment.

The point requiring orders in this case is whether the appointment of S. Krishna-machar as Manager of the office of the Secretary to the Insurance Committee on Rs. 70–5–100. Should be sanctioned as recommended by the Secretary, Insurance Committee. This is not, however, a matter for Council, but requires only the Sanction of His Highness the Maha-raja under the Standing orders —

2. The revision of the Scale of Establishment of the Insurance Secretary's office has been sanctioned by the Committee in accordance with the powers vested in them by G. O. no. 1061-62 of the 8th Aug. 1898, and a copy of the Committee's Resolution to that effect is sent up only for the information of Govt.

Therefore I solicit instructions as to what the question which has to be considered by Council, in this case.
